Thursday, June 3, 2021

10:00AM-12:00PM

Please join us for our 2021-2023 Election of Officers and the Executive Committee followed by

Frank Ricci, Yankee Institute Fellow of Labor & Special Initiatives

Frank Ricci was a union official for over 16 years never losing an election and culminating with 8 years as a principle officers and wining two terms as President of New Haven Fire Fighters. He worked with and against numerous department heads and labor directors and was rated by UnionTrack as one of the top 20 labor advocates to follow on Twitter. After being on the other side of the table, Frank will provide us tips on how to succeed at the bargaining table and day to day operation benefiting your managers, town and the taxpayers.

Frank was the lead plaintiff in the landmark Supreme Court case Ricci v. DeStefano and has testified before Congress. He has lectured at the Reagan Library and has been a lead consultant on several studies for the Yale School of Medicine. Frank has appeared on Hannity, Lou Dobbs, Cavuto Live, Hardball, NBC Nightly News, Fox & Friends, and other notable news shows. He is a contributing author to several books and a contributor to the Daily Caller, DC Examiner and the Federalist.
